VLSI graduates</li> <li>• Dr. Keshav Prasad Singh was appreciative of the Black Soldier Fly-DST project and opined that Food production &amp; Storage is very crucial; aeroponic farming/vertical farming etc are on the emerging technologies</li> <li>• When the Principal sought opinion of the expert members regarding the plan of going for 'Institutional Research Centre, Dr. Keshav Prasad Singh shared his idea through his loud thinking that K.S. Rangasamy College of Technology</li> </ul>

- should work on the idea of one Centre of Excellence at the National Level. There should be no parallel in the country for it; there should be frequent brainstorming at all levels and he asserted that 5 years down the line, KSRCT can achieve it
- Dr.K.Annamalai fell in line with this idea with thrust given to the indigenous markets like Textile and Dr. Lavanam Amballa said that there is niche market for new ventures in the Textile technology related areas
  - Dr.K.Annamalai pointed the existing practice at Anna University that if students have arrears in 3rd Semester they may not eligible for 7th Semester registration; he suggested that it may be added in the regulation
  - The expert members suggested highlighting the significance of details while presenting large data at a forum
  - Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh confirmed about the professional Development allowance for all the faculty and it may be ensured that the faculty contribute back to the institution by way of Consultancy and other such activities
  - The expert members were all appreciative of the improvement in the Research Proposal submission to various funding agencies
  - Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh advised that a “Letter from the Principal” should reach every Faculty/department every fortnightly enabling a mutual bond created from the grass root level till top level peer team
  - Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh expressed his concern over the less citation and less SCOPUS indexed journal articles. He also insisted that a city-wide publicity may be given regularly about all the developmental activities the institution is doing in physical mode-banners etc; the public should see the college name everywhere at regular intervals creating a sort of expectation as to what the college is going to do next; the principal ensured that the same is being done in social media platforms and consented to explore the physical branding process also
  - Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh also asked the principal to explore the possibility of deploying retired Scientists as Adjunct Faculty
  - Dr.P.Parthiban highlighted the efforts of the principal in improving the placement prospects by all means
  - Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh & Dr. Lavanam expressed their concern that placement is a big challenge everywhere but appreciated the principal's efforts in connecting with the Alumni as a feasible solution for the same
  - They also voiced unanimously that the placement number may be inclusive of students opting for higher studies, entrepreneurship etc.,
  - Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh encouraged the principal to induct as many alumni as possible in the venture to increase placement prospects
  - Dr. Lavanam Amballa hinted at highlighting the domain of the start-up ventures in the display; he also enquired about the start-ups related to the aero-space domain
  - Dr.K.Annamalai suggested that the principal explore introducing M.E. with specialization in Aerospace domain and through them many projects may be roped in for a fertile research platform which may attract very good funds also from the funding agencies- as supersonic flights are going to be the order of the day in future

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh has appreciated Dr. Annamalai's suggestion as viable and insisted that 'cultivation of thinking' should be imbibed among the students</li> <li>• Dr. Lavanam Amballa appreciated the principal's singular efforts in skilling students at a massive scale.</li> <li>• Dr.K.Annamalai suggested the Principal to look into the policy bottlenecks and pinched on ways to ease out the policy framework</li> <li>• Dr. Kehava Prasad Singh appreciated the 'infectious encouragement' given to student winners of the Inventor's Challenge</li> <li>• The Miyawaki afforestation method may be explored by the departments of Biotechnology &amp; Food Technology as space is a gift to the institution</li> <li>• Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh recommended exploring inking of MoUs across different domains and suggested to highlight the key words in the achievement section as it may improve the presentation styles</li> <li>• Dr.K.Annamalai suggested that a list consisting of alumni who are recruited across various states/countries may be prepared and their expertise may be accessed to arrange guest lectures/webinars etc.,</li> <li>• Dr. Keshava Prasad Singh reminisced referring to one Dr. Harish Chaudhry of IIM Delhi whose expertise may also be tapped Teachers and scholars</li> <li>• The faculty may be encouraged to research on the Fuel Cell Technology which offers a lot of avenues for development</li> <li>• Dr.K.Annamalai suggested having more students from other states on the rolls and Dr. Lavanam added that excelling in a few domains will attract more students from other states</li> <li>• Dr. Lavanam Amballa also added that the principal, along with his academic team, may explore as to how many of the people's/Society's/companies' problems has the college solved; this reflective exercise will nudge us more towards identifying &amp; solving their problems through different projects and the people/Companies should naturally approach you/your think tank for a solution to their problems; this visibility will also attract many other state/other country students to our institution</li> <li>• Dr.P.Parthiban also voiced his input that departments should attract many Government Projects.</li> </ul> When opinion was sought for going for the Deemed University, the expert members advised introducing many diverse courses/programmes as being experimented by IIT Kharagpur <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• They wished the institution to have a fabulous growth in the near future.</li> </ul>
Resolution	It is resolved to follow the above suggestions to take the Institution to the next level.

The Principal & Member Secretary of the Governing Body thanked all the members for their valuable suggestions and coordination.
